Da	vid Alan Black, It's Still Greek to Me
VV	ORKSHEET — Those Articulate Articles — Lesson 6
1.	When the article is used in Greek, the noun is said to be	or;
	when it is not used, the noun is
2.	Articles are used to show whether we are referring to things that are and the	to the
3.	Many times the definite article, "the," behaves very much like the
4.	Remember, a noun may be without the	·
5.	When a definite noun lacks the article, stress is being placed on therather than its	aspect of the noun
6.	Write out Colwell's Rule and give an example.
7.	Write out the Granville Sharp Rule, give an example, and two exceptions to the ru	ıle.